Introduction

Thank you for purchasing the SABRE Hip Holster (Model: H-SL-P1C). This holster is specifically designed to offer maximum durability, comfort, and versatility for the SL-P1C/SL-P1C-2 Home Defense Projectile Launcher. With its ambidextrous design, this holster accommodates both left- and right-handed users, providing convenience and easy access for various carrying preferences.

Product Overview

The SABRE Model H-SL-P1C holster is expertly crafted from 600D polyester, ensuring a durable and water-resistant solution for securely carrying your SL-P1C/SL-P1C-2 Home Defense Projectile Launcher. The ambidextrous design and sturdy metal clip allow for seamless switching between left- and right-hand use, making it an adaptable and reliable choice for all users.

Parts and Features

- A. 600D Polyester Material: Provides exceptional durability and water resistance, ensuring long-lasting performance.
- B. Metal Clip: Attaches securely to your belt, ensuring the holster remains in place during use.
- C. Ambidextrous Design: Allows for effortless adjustment between left- and right-hand use, offering versatility to all users.
- D. SL-P1C/SL-P1C-2 Home Defense Projectile Launcher Compatibility: Custom-fit to securely hold the SL-P1C/SL-P1C-2 Home Defense Projectile Launcher, ensuring a snug and reliable fit.

Attaching the Holster to Your Belt

1. Slide the metal clip over your belt at your preferred position on your waist or hip.
2. Ensure the holster sits snugly against your body, with the clip firmly attached to the belt.

Adjusting for Left or Right-Handed Use

1. Right-Handed Use: The holster comes pre-configured with the metal clip installed on the right side, making it ready for right-handed use right out of the box.
2. Left-Handed Use: To convert the holster for left-handed use, follow these steps:
 - Carefully remove the metal belt clip from the loop where it is attached.
 - Position the clip on the opposite side by sliding it into the loop designed for left-handed use.
3. Positioning: After adjusting, check that the launcher's grip is easily accessible and comfortably positioned for a smooth and natural draw.

Securing the SL-P1C/SL-P1C-2

Home Defense Projectile Launcher

1. Insert your launcher into the holster, ensuring it is fully seated and secure.
2. Snap the lock strap.
3. The holster should hold the launcher firmly in place without excessive movement.

Drawing the Launcher

1. Unsnap the lock strap of the holster to allow the removal of your launcher.
2. Ensure your hand is positioned comfortably on the launcher grip.
3. Pull the launcher straight up out of the holster in a smooth, controlled motion.
4. Practice drawing with an unloaded launcher until you can do so confidently and safely.

Reholstering the Launcher

1. Align the launcher with the holster's opening.
2. Gently push the launcher back into the holster until it is securely seated.
3. Ensure the launcher is fully inserted and the holster retains it firmly.
4. Snap the locking strap to secure your launcher in the holster.

Maintenance and Care

- Cleaning: Wipe down the holster with a damp cloth to remove dirt and debris. Allow it to air dry completely before using.
- Storage: Store the holster in a cool, dry place when not in use.
- Inspection: Regularly check for signs of wear, particularly around the metal clip, lock strap, and stitching. Replace the holster if any damage is found.

Troubleshooting

- Loose Fit: If the launcher feels loose in the holster, ensure it is properly seated. If the issue persists, consider replacing the hip holster.
- Difficulty Drawing: Practice drawing motions to break in the holster. If the problem continues, check for obstructions or defects in the holster.
